DISBURSEMENTS – NOT INCLUDED IN OUR FEES SET OUT BELOW

Disbursement are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees, Counsel fee, Interpreter fee etc. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

These costs can be:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. These vary depending on the type of application you are making. Further details of these fees can be found here.
- Fees of any independent expert witnesses*, where required;
- Interpreter fees, which vary depending on the language you speak and the amount of time spent by the interpreter;
- Official translation fees*, which vary depending on the language and the number of documents requiring translation;
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal

Disbursements other than Home Office fees may attract VAT, chargeable at 20%. This will depend on your individual circumstances and whether or not the individual/company providing the service is VAT registered.

OTHER FACTORS THAT CAN COMPLICATE YOUR CASE

The following are examples of issues that may impact on the cost of your case:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider.
- Whether you have had a previous adverse immigration matter, such as a visa refusal.
- Which language(s) you speak.
- Whether you are applying with dependants and the number of dependants involved.
- How easily you are able to provide all of the supporting evidence.
- How clearly you meet the eligibility criteria for the relevant application.
- The urgency of your case.
- In relationship cases, where you are not married or where there are stepchildren.
